Tour Groups

Tailor-made group packages, including private guided tours of the World Heritage Village and the award-winning Visitor Centre

We are always keen to work with tour operators for groups and individuals at home and overseas to arrange the perfect group visit for your group. Overnight stays and/or meals in the hotel can easily be combined with tours of the World Heritage Centre. We can also arrange for special evening entertainment including whisky, wine and gin tasting, private talks on the history of the village, traditional Scottish music and game nights.

The central location of the village makes the hotel a perfect base for touring Scotland. Groups regularly spend three or four nights, spending one day exploring the village and the remainder of their stay sightseeing in Edinburgh, shopping in Glasgow or touring the Borders.

We offer special low season packages with entertainment for groups staying three or four nights, and we also offer packages for groups visiting festivals such as the Edinburgh Tattoo in August.

I Cannot Thank You Enough

“We got married at New Lanark on Friday 1st June and I could not have asked for the day to go better than it did. It was all down to the amazing staff from housekeeping, waiting staff, bar staff, and the managers.”

A Stunning Venue for Your Event

Look for a venue with a difference for your next event? Whether you are hosting a wedding, conference, birthday party, christening, funeral, we have the perfect space for you!

At New Lanark Mill Hotel there are a variety of dining options available to you to celebrate a special occasion.

For smaller and more intimate occasions our elegant Mill One Restaurant is a central feature of the hotel. Intimate and relaxed, this is a wonderful setting for a delicious meal.

Alternatively, you may choose to dine in one of our private function rooms, all of which have spectacular views across the surrounding countryside. In particular, the Stone Byres Linn Suite is ideal for smaller private parties of up to 20 people.

Our Head Chef and her team carefully source the finest produce from Scotland's larder, making full use of what is available locally, to create a menu of traditional Scottish fare. This is complemented by an excellent wine list with a range from around the world.

You can choose from a selection of lunch and dinner menus or we can design a menu which specifically suits your event. Either way, you will enjoy food or wine to a standard that befits the venue and surroundings. Attentive staff will provide efficient yet relaxed and unobtrusive service with a smile.

For larger occasions and events we have a dedicated events team who will look after you throughout. We also have a number of suites available to suit the size of your occasion, you can be assured that we have it covered. From small finger buffets to large gourmet banquets; we can suit all budgets and cater from 2 to 150 people.
